ACTIVE RESEARCH

Lead Research Analyst - Independent Study | Self-Initiated Feb 2026 – Apr 2026
“Lost in the Learning Loop” + LINX Redesign: Learning platform behaviour study leading to a full product redesign concept

- Designed end-to-end mixed-methods study: survey (n=20) and 4 moderated interviews; core finding led directly to a product redesign proposal for LinkedIn Learning.
- Identified four learner archetypes and the key variable separating completion from abandonment, used to redesign onboarding, chatbot logic, and in-product retention trigger (Commitment Echo)
- Prototype built in Figma; case study published April 2026 on Medium

KEY PROJECTS

The Learner Journey: OULAD Analytics Tableau • Python	2026
Analyzed 32,593 Open University learners found more withdrew than failed, reframing the problem from performance to course design. Built 3-part Tableau story with retention recommendations. Live on Tableau Public.
LINX: LinkedIn Learning Redesign Figma • UX Design	2026
- Research-grounded redesign of LinkedIn Learning's onboarding, built directly from mixed-methods findings - Designed identity-first onboarding flow, context-aware chatbot (using LinkedIn profile data), network insight feature, and Module 2 retention trigger - Full interactive prototype live on Figma
Germany Energy Transition Analysis Python • Jupyter	2025
17-year cross-sector study; electricity costs explain only 13–19% of manufacturing decline — prioritized analytical rigor over hypothesis confirmation
